The list of such high priority diseases is already long and growing. Plum Island has been doing an excellent job in the defense against foreign animal disease threats - but the age of its facilities and its limited capacity is pacing the development of needed countermeasures. Further, there are no facili-ties in the Nation to fully address those zoonotic diseases that affect both large ani-mals and humans and attract the scientists, technicians, researchers, veterinarians and medical personnel needed to defend against current and future threats...
