The World As I See It Is An Emotional Collection of Children s Poems That Will Amaze You. All the bad memories I wish you could erase, you are the source of the pain on my face. Aaron C. Padgett Jr. My name is Aaron C. Padgett Jr. You are about to read a collection of children s poems that I have written over the years. I started off writing small sentences about how I was feeling at the time. As the years moved along, my writing improved. My father submitted some of my poems to children s organization and a few of them have been published. My pop told me I should continue to write for children like me. There are adults who write children s poems but none of them can speak from a child s point of view. The World As I See It is children s poetry, written by a child poet. I write about struggles in school, problems at home, and the journey to become better at whatever sport I am playing. I am the brains and my father is the muscle. I write my poems and he works to get other people to see them. He says it is something we can do together while I am young and still want to spend time with him. The ideal reader for this book is someone nine years old and up. I write about things that are currently happening in my life. If your child thinks they are the only one that has drama in their life, a kid will like this. If you have a crush on a girl and do not...
