Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Antonio West: was an American boy who grew up in a low to middle class working family in south Florida during the early 70 s. He was just another skinny kid who did not fair well in school, dealing with a learning disability which made him the odd one out. Constantly told that he was not smart enough, just because he viewed the world differently then his peers (but somehow graduated with an Electrical Engineering degree). He watched as his parents went through personal and financial hardship, and was raised in a dysfunctional family. With less than $10 in the bank when he graduated from college, Antonio West went from Zero to $1,000,000 dollars of net worth in fourteen years. Antonio s journey took him from Ohio to Florida all the way across the country to California (from East to West coast), with a stint in Texas along the way. He had many jobs and professions including the owner of a computer company; but his heart was beating for one thing which seemed impossible to do, that was to become an artist and musician for a living. For everyone in our world loves the arts, but very few of us can live off the money made doing so. But Antonio found a way to remove the money from his pursuit of music, by setting a goal to become a millionaire and retire from the professional world by age 38. This is a story of life death and the human desire to persevere, not about some get rich quick scheme or sudden new found fortune. Through hard work focus and dedication to succeed, by believing in yourself and setting...
