Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Helena Rivers, while searching for a purpose for this new stage of life, intentionally searches and finds the early history of her home of Jekyll Island, Georgia, and the beauty of the tidal marsh environment that has been the inspiration of poets. The pain of betrayal and the fire that destroys her home on the eve of an important event open doors that could only be part of an inexplicable plan. A developing friendship with a couple well-known to the readers of The Glass Divider, Paige and Victor Delacroix from Baton Rouge, Louisiana, proves that nothing happens in life by chance or by luck.
