I need not say that the General has had a most eventful and brilliant career as a soldier, and fully deserves the confidence and affection in which he is held by both the army and the nation at large. Here is a INDIAN WITH SCALP. picture showing an interview or great council between Indian chiefs and a Commission from Washington. It is a good and characteristic sketch of one of these famous pow-wows. Aunt Harriet: I suppose that the Indian question will never seriously interest any but a small proportion of our people; otherwise we might even yet hope to see the Indian department creditably managed. Dr. Paulus: I do not despair altogether of the future of the race, although there are many gloomy aspects of the question. The Church of Christ is grappling with the difficulty with more earnestness than ever. It is demonstrated, beyond doubt, that the Indian is capable of civilization, and I am glad to see that our government is encouraging and aiding the establishment of schools in the various tribes, with very gratifying results. Aunt Harriet: I hope it will not be long before Indian citizenship will be fully recognized. Mr. Merriman: I believe that some of the wisest and most philanthropic men and women of our country are devoting their lives to the study of this great question, and it is devoutly to be hoped that the next decade or two will witness the...
