PRAGMATICS OF PERSUASIVE DISCOURSE IN SPANISH TELEVISION ADVERTISING

Summer Institute of Linguistics, Academic Publications. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 234 pages. Dimensions: 8.8in. x 5.6in. x 0.6in.This investigation analyzes pragmatic ways in which Spanish is used to achieve persuasion in television advertising. The author applies pragmatic models to commercials for products and services from three countries--Chile, Spain, and the United States. She addresses the questions: (1) Which pragmatic divides occur most frequently (2) How are these devices linguistically coded (3) Are any differences evident between regional varieties of...
