The Quotations of Oscar Wilde: Illustrated by Simon Drew (Hardback)

By Simon Drew

ACC Art Books, United Kingdom, 2007. Hardback. Book Condition: New. Simon Drew (illustrator). 211 x 157 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. The genius of Oscar Wilde has so often been compared with that of Simon Drew and for the very first time, you can witness the best work of the two intellectual maestros in the same volume. If you want to see an illustration of I have nothing to declare but my genius you won t find it in this book. If you can recall Wilde s witty comment that has something to do with gutters and looking at the stars you won t find it here. The most famous, (and corny) Wilde lines have been avoided for this book of his most interesting quotations. They have been married with suitable cat and dog illustrations, in the usual Drew style, that will sometimes clarify (but more likely confuse) the meanings of Wilde s quips. If you want a book to give you guidance and to supply you with a philosophy to live your life by, this isn t the book for you. If you want a good laugh and the ability to pass Wilde s most obscure remarks...
