Not illustrated. 1907 Excerpt: .An Endless Chain A lady who was visiting the home of a friend had just given each of the children a penny. When the savings bank was produced and the coins were deposited therein, the lady made the remark that the children had a lot of money. Oh, yes, said little Mary. Mamma is very good to us. Every time we take our castoroil without crying she gives us a penny. And what do you do with all the money? asked the visitor. Why, mamma buys some more castor-oil with it. Prompted One afternoon a Sunday-school was about to be dismissed and the youngsters were already in anticipation. They relaxed their cramped little limbs after the hours of confinement on straightbacked chairs and benches. Then the superintendent arose and, instead of the usual dismissal, announced, And now, children, let me introduce Mr. L, who will give us a short talk. Mr. L smilingly arose, and after gazing impressively around the classroom began, I hardly know what to say, when the whole school was convulsed to hear a small thin girlish voice in the rear of the room lisp: Thay amen and thit down. Coming Down Like A Lady A young lady was entertaining callers one evening when her little sister came down the stairway in a noisy manner. Frances, said the annoyed elder sister, you came down-stairs so that you could be heard all over the house. Now, go back and come down properly. Frances retired,...
