Reviews

An exceptional ebook along with the typeface employed was intriguing to see. It really is simplistic but surprises within the fifty percent of the ebook. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Jonathan Spradlin, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 133 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .American Creamy is the first full-length novel written by Jonathan Spradlin. It is a work of literary fiction that encompasses many fields of interest and study as its dual stories wind in and through themselves and each other. It is a psychedelic, poetic, and musical novel, heavily influenced by the work of James Joyce, Cormac McCarthy, Franz Kafka, and Ernest Hemingway in its tempered stream of consciousness style. There are four distinct, sometimes overlapping, timelines to be found in the stories. This is accomplished by Spradlin s mode of delivery, which uses Ezekiel Thomas, or Preacher Man as the narrator, writing to you, the reader, in a jailhouse notebook. His musings take him everywhere along the path of his own long life (he is well over fifty years old), especially pointing out the events that led to his several incarcerations, and some of what happened to him while incarcerated. Preacher Man s story takes the front seat in this, the first half of the novel. But, the reader also meets, along with Preacher Man, the other protagonist of American Creamy, Eben Thomas. The two meet just a few short weeks prior to the writing of the book. Indeed, the meeting itself spurs the writing, as Preacher Man implies in his opening paragraphs. The two find themselves together in an eight man tank in what s called a Behavioral Observation ward in the Dallas County Jail. Behavioral Observation is a very real place in Dallas County where inmates are placed who have some history of mental illness, but who are not psychotic or violent at the moment of triage. Preacher Man, who is black, feels compelled to transcribe...
