BiblioGov. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 24 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.1in.Pursuant to a congressional request, GAO reviewed the travel and training activities of employees of the Public Buildings Service (PBS), focusing on PBS: (1) limits on expenditures and obligations for travel and training; (2) off-site events sponsored by PBS Central Office and National Capital Region (NCR); (3) trips taken by staff in the Commissioners office; and (4) employees attending management training programs. GAO noted that: (1) the fiscal year (FY) 1997 limit imposed through the appropriations process on the amounts PBS could expend on travel was about 62 percent higher than the limit imposed on travel spending for FY 1992 when adjusted for inflation; (2) in FY 1998, the appropriations act for General Services Administration (GSA) did not include a provision limiting PBS travel expenditures; (3) there is no comparable limit on the amounts PBS can expend for training; (4) when adjusted for inflation, PBS FY 1998 travel obligations were 34 percent higher than its FY 1992 travel obligations, and its FY 1998 training obligations were 23 percent lower than its FY 1992 training obligations; (5) however, on an annual basis,...
