OUTSIDER S VENGEANCE! OUTSIDER S VENGEANCE! the chant of the sold out crowd repeats, over and over and over. The crowd cheers and yells in excitement as they await the encore. I can hear the roaring backstage. I am sitting on a couch in my dressing room, relaxing after two hours of sheer rock n roll indulgence. Hearing OUTSIDER S VENGEANCE! the OUTSIDER S VENGEANCE! chant OUTSIDER S VENGEANCE! has made me realize, for how long I day-dreamed of having that rock n roll life, and here I am livin it; right here, right now! Like the greats and legends I admire, I walked a long and winding road to learn if I was willing to sell my soul for rock n roll. Mike Cook, guitar player and band leader for Outsider s Vengeance, reflects upon his career at a concert. He started out like any other musician, learning to play the guitar. He then attempts to join an already established band, MASTER! MASTER! (a Metallica cover-band). But when things go sour for him in the band, he sets out to form his own band, searching for the right musicians with the same goal in mind; create music away from the norm. From there on, his rock n roll life takes flight (though, it s anything but a smooth ride; as turbulence of life does try to take him and his band off course). Mike and his band experiences what every other band experiences; musical band mates that don t work out, rivalry from a jealous band in the same local area, and shady record contracts that seem to be too...
